Treasurers Report

The Treasurers Report, attached was tabled for all to read. Ms. Karen Dzodzoz made mention of the improved situation with the clothing account but the club was down on the amount of sponsorship gained from previous years.

The Treasurer's Report was accepted by Mr. Graham Burton and seconded by Mr. Jim DiCarlo.

Mr. Graeme Quelch requested that the minutes reflect an acknowledgement of Ms. Dzodzoz for her outstanding work in preparing and managing the finances of the club. This was supported by all attendees.

President's Report

Mr. Norm Fawcett presented his President's Report to the AGM.

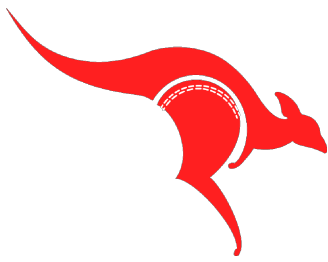

Mr. Fawcett thanked all for attending and praised the efforts of the executive and general Committee. He made mention of the positive financial position of the club and expected a final bank balance of $127,000 once the second COW grant was received. He expected this to be received in the coming week.

Mr. Fawcett was quite happy with the on-field performances of both the grade and junior sides, and congratulated the 3rd Grade on their premiership win along with the 17s premiership flag.

Mr. Fawcett thanked all coaching staff of their efforts and felt that we had a number of talented juniors coming through the system and that this was proven by the number of the youngsters making grade debuts in particular in our 1st and 2nd Grade squads.
